- K. Security Breach – refers to any unauthorized, unlawful or accidental access, processing, disclosure, alteration, loss, damage, or destruction of Personal Data whether by human or natural causes; and

2. Purpose

COMPANY will share, provide, or disclose to HCPH, Personal Data which is in the possession and control of COMPANY pertaining to its employees, agents or business for processing and sending of important notifications to the COMPANY.

3.1. Responsibilities of the PIC

The PIC with regard to the Personal Data in their original possession, is responsible for ensuring that it collects Personal Data lawfully and in accordance with the requirements of the DPA and its IRR.

Prior to collection and sharing, or at the next practicable opportunity, the PIC shall be responsible apprising the Data Subject with the nature, purpose, and extent of the processing of his or her Personal Data, including the risks and safeguards involved, the identity of the PIC, his or her rights as a data subject, and how these can be exercised.

The PIC warrants that it is compliant with the DPA and its IRR in relation to its processing of Personal Data. The PIC also warrants that it has in place appropriate administrative, physical, technical and organizational security measures that protect Personal Data from Security Breach.

The PIC shall be responsible for the accuracy and quality of the personal data that it collects and shares.

The PIC shall be responsible for addressing any information request, or any complaint filed by a Data Subject and/or any investigation conducted by the Commission. Provided, that the Commission shall make a final determination as to who among the parties is liable for any breach or violation of the DPA, its IRR, or any applicable issuance of the Commission.

3.2. Responsibilities of the PIP

The PIP shall not share personal data obtained from the PIC with any other party without the prior written permission/instruction of the PIC or process personal data in any way or for any purpose other than those set out in this Agreement. The PIP shall segregate the Personal Data from its own and its other clients' data.

The PIP shall not sub-contract or engage a third party or another Personal Information Processor to process the Personal Data without the prior knowledge and written agreement of the PIC, and only after the third party has provided all the necessary assurance and guarantees that it has adequate administrative, physical, technical, organizational and procedural security measures to protect the personal data.

The PIP shall assist the personal information controller in ensuring compliance with the Act, these Rules, other relevant laws, and other issuances of the Commission, taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to the personal information processor. The PIP shall immediately inform the PIC if, in its opinion, an instruction infringes the DPA, its IRR, or any other issuance of the Commission.

4. Categories of Personal Data

The categories of Personal Data to be shared by COMPANY are as follows:

From HCPH:
Not applicable. No personal data will be shared

5. Security

The PIP shall implement strict security measures that ensure the availability, integrity, and confidentiality of Personal Data. The PIP shall implement reasonable and appropriate organizational, physical, technical, administrative, procedural and security measures to protect Personal Data against any Security Breach as prescribed in the DPA, its IRR, and circulars issued by the Commission.

The PIP shall ensure that Personal Data is backed up on a regular basis and that any back up is subject to security measures as necessary to protect the availability, integrity and confidentiality of Personal Data.

The PIP undertakes that it will not, at any time, whether during the course of, or after the term of this Agreement, transfer, share, divulge, exploit, and modify any Personal Data to any person.

6. Personnel

Each party shall take steps to ensure that any person acting under its authority and who has access to Personal Data, does not process them except for purposes of this Data Processing Agreement or as required by law.

Each Party shall ensure that access to Personal Data is limited only to its officer, employees, agents or representatives who need access only for purposes of this Data Processing Agreement.

Each Party shall ensure that its officers, employees, agents or representatives engaged in the Processing of Personal Data are informed of the confidential nature of the Personal Data and are subject to obligations of confidentiality and such obligations survive the termination of that officer's, employees', agents' or representatives' engagement or relationship with each Party.

Each Party shall take reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of any of its officers, employees, agents or representatives who have access to Personal Data, which shall include ensuring that they all understand the confidential nature of the Personal Data; and have received appropriate training in data protection prior to their access or Processing of Personal

Data, and have signed a written undertaking that they understand and will act in accordance with their responsibilities for confidentiality under this Data Processing Agreement.

7. Data Subject Access Rights

Data Subjects have a right to see what Personal Data is held about them, and to know why and how it is processed.

The PIC has an obligation to respond to these request or complaints, however request made to the PIP should be honored by them. The PIP shall, by appropriate technical and organizational measures and to the extent possible, fulfill the obligation to respond to requests by data subjects relative to the exercise of their rights. Inquiries and information requests can be made by submitting a written letter with the following Data Protection Officers (or its equivalent):

HCPH:

Name of DPO : Rejyl Siang
Email : DPO@homecredit.ph

Email : <<AUTHORIZED_REPRESENTATIVE_EMAIL_ADDRESS>>
Address : <<AUTHORIZED_REPRESENTATIVE_ADDRESS>>

The DPO of each Party will be the first port of call for questions about this Agreement, any complaint filed by the Data Subject and/or investigation by the Commission. If there is a problem such as a potential Security Breach, the relevant DPO must be contacted.

Each Party shall rectify the complaint by any Data Subject within thirty (30) days from receipt of any such complaint. The Data Subject shall be given a response in writing describing how the complaint was rectified and how the situation complained of will be avoided moving forward.

8. Breach Management and Notification

Each Party shall implement policies and procedures for guidance of its personnel in the event of a Security Breach, including but not limited to:

- A. A procedure for the timely discovery of Security Breach, including the identification of person or persons responsible for regular monitoring and evaluation of Security Breach;
- B. A policy for documentation, regular review, evaluation and updating of the privacy and security policy and practices;
- C. Clear reporting lines in the event of a possible Security Breach, including the identification of the person responsible for setting in motion the Security Breach response procedure, and who shall be immediately contacted in the event of a possible or confirmed Security Breach;

- D. Conduct of a preliminary assessment for purpose of:
 - 1. Assessing the nature and scope of the Security Breach and the immediate damage;
 - 2. Determining the need for notification of law enforcement or external expertise; and
 - 3. Implementing immediate measures necessary to secure any evidence, contain the Security Breach and restore integrity to the Personal Data;
- E. Evaluation of the Security Breach as to its nature, extent and cause, the adequacy of safeguards in place, immediate and long-term damage, impact of the breach, and its potential harm and negative consequences to Personal Data and affected Data Subjects;
- F. Procedures for contacting law enforcement in case Security Breach involves possible commission of criminal acts;
- G. Conduct of investigations that will evaluate fully the Security Breach;
- H. Procedures for immediately notifying the PIC when the Security Breach is subject to notification requirement; and
- I. Measures and procedures for mitigating the possible harm and negative consequences to the PIC and the affected Data Subjects in the event of a Security Breach. Each Party must be ready to provide assistance to the Data Subjects whose Personal Data may have been affected.

The Parties shall have the manpower, system, facilities and equipment in place to properly monitor access to Personal Data, and to monitor and identify a Security Breach.

If a party becomes aware of any Security Breach on its personnel, premises, facilities, system, or equipment, it shall: (a) notify the other Party of the Security Breach; (b) investigate the Security Breach and provide the other Party with information about the Security Breach; and (c) take reasonable steps to mitigate the effects and to minimize any damage resulting from the Security Breach.

The Parties shall cooperate with each other on incident investigation requirements for any Security Breach of Personal Data.

Each Party shall send the written notification or notification to their DPO counterpart via e-mail of any Security Breach to the other within twenty-four (24) hours from knowledge or discovery thereof.

Upon receipt, confirmation and knowledge of the security breach, the DPO for the PIC shall notify the Commission and the affected Data Subject within seventy-two (72) hours.

The Party who was notified of a Security Breach may require the other Party to provide further details and actions taken on the Security Breach.

9. Duration of this Agreement

Unless extended by mutual written consent of both Parties hereto, this Data Processing Agreement shall expire either five (5) years from the date hereof or upon the termination of the Contract, whichever occurs last.

This Data Processing Agreement may be renewed by mutual consent at the option of either party before its expiration as provided above.

10. Retention of Personal Data

Personal Data should only be processed for as long as is necessary. Processing of Personal Data should be limited accordingly and for a period no longer than the term of this Agreement. Specific justification for processing, specifically retention, of Personal Data beyond said period is required. At the end term of this agreement or after the expiration of any approved extension, the Personal Data must be deleted unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing.

If Personal Data has been held for longer than one (1) year, an updated version must be obtained as soon as practicable following the manner and period to be determined and announced by HCPH. If a complaint is received about the accuracy of Personal Data which affects personal and/or sensitive personal information shared with the other Party, an updated replacement Personal Data will be communicated to the other Party. The other Party must replace the out of date data with the revised data.

11. Return or Destruction of Personal Data

Upon expiration or termination of the Contract or this Agreement, whichever comes first, the PIP shall perform the following within thirty (30) days from date of said expiration or termination:

- a. Return all Personal Data of Data Subjects in any recorded form including any other property, information, and documents provided by the PIC;
- b. Destroy all copies it made of Personal Data and any other property, information and documents if requested by the PIC. For print out or other tangible formats, the document will be shredded. For data in electronic form, the document must be deleted, wiped, overwritten or otherwise make it irretrievable; and
- c. Deliver to the PIC a certificate confirming PIP's compliance with the return or destruction obligation under this section, if requested by the PIC.

12. Audits

The PIP shall make available to the PIC all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations laid down in the DPA, and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the PIC or another auditor mandated by the latter. In the course of such audit, the PIC may conduct the following measures, but shall not be limited to:

1. Obtain information from the PIP about their processing operations pertaining to the shared data to verify their compliance with the terms of the Contract or this agreement.
2. Request the PIP to submit an existing attestation or certificate by an independent professional expert on their compliance to the DPA and applicable data privacy laws and the security requirements therein.
3. Upon reasonable and timely advance notice, during regular business hours, conduct an on-site inspection of the business operations of the PIP or have the same conducted by a qualified third party auditor or assessor, which shall not be an existing independent consultant of the PIP.

4. The PIP shall, after written request by the PIC, and within a reasonable period of time, submit any and all information, documentation, and/or other means of factual proof necessary for the conduct of an audit.

13. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. It excludes and supersedes everything else which has occurred between the Parties whether written or oral, including all other communications with respect to the subject matter hereof.

14. Amendment

This Agreement may not be amended or modified except in writing and consented to by both Parties.

15. Separability Clause

If any provision of this Agreement is illegal or unenforceable, its invalidity shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement that can be given effect without the invalid provision. If any provision of this Agreement does not comply with any law, ordinance or regulation, such provision to the extent possible shall be interpreted in such a manner to comply with such law, ordinance or regulation, or if such interpretation is not possible, it shall be deemed to satisfy the minimum requirements thereof.

16. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterpart copies, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which shall constitute the same agreement.

17. Assignment

Either Party shall not assign or delegate its rights or obligations under this Agreement, in whole or in part, to any third party by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other. Any attempted assignment or delegation that does not comply with this section shall be null and void and of no effect.

18. Non-Waiver of Rights

The failure of a Party to insist upon a strict performance of any of the terms, conditions and covenants hereof, shall not be deemed a relinquishment or waiver of any right/remedy that said Party may have, nor shall it be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or other terms, conditions and covenants. Any waiver, extension or forbearance of any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Agreement by any Party hereto shall be in writing and limited to the particular instance only and shall not in any manner be construed as a waiver, extension or forbearance of any of the terms, conditions and/or covenants of this Agreement.

19. Legal Capacity of Representatives

Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that its representative executing this Agreement on its behalf is its duly appointed and acting representative and has the legal capacity required under the applicable law to enter into this Agreement and bind it.

20. Governing Law and Venue

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Philippines, without regard to any conflicts of law rules. Exclusive jurisdiction over and venue of any suit arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be in the courts of Metro Manila, Philippines. The Parties hereby consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of those courts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have hereunto affixed their signatures on the date and at the place first above-written.
